DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20301

3 JUN 1983

C-062/DI-P

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

SUBJECT: The National Intelligence Daily (C)

1. (C) I have received your 31 May and 3 June letters which were distributed attached to the National Intelligence Daily. In response to your 31 May letter, let me assure you that the NID is closely guarded. It is picked up specially at DIA's Special Security Office and delivered to my office sealed in its envelope. I read it during the course of the day and my secretary returns it via the SSO office. I can attest that neither my secretary nor I have ever reproduced any part of the NID.
2. (C) In regard to your 3 June letter, I have not complied with the requirement to return the NID to CIA within 24 hours. The outstanding issues cited were returned to the DIA SSO on 1 and 2 June. At my request, my secretary held the NID for me pending my return from an overseas trip (15-27 May).
3. (C) This raises a question. If one is traveling what are the preferred arrangements for holding the NID pending a return? I certainly do not want to miss the information contained in the issues on the days I am absent from Washington.
4. (U) I regret causing any inconvenience.
